Unfinished Business

Nordick explained to the Board that the online class that was submitted by @YOP has been approved by the Kansas Continuing Education Review Committee.

Nordick has requested to the administrator of the course that the classes be broken up into individual modules and @YOP has obliged.

Nordick also explained to the board that the classes are now available on the MABCD web site.

Lonny Wright asked Chairman Ragland if he could have a moment to comment about the online classes; and Chairman Ragland obliged. Mr. Wright weighed in with his opinion and desire to follow up this decision to accept the online course, with a possible presentation.

Chairman Ragland asked that Mr. Wright make direct contact with the Interim Electrical/Elevator Chief, Chris Nordick, for further discussion.

New Business

Nordick distributed three new elevator directives to the Board members for their review, and asked that this item be added to the August 9 agenda for discussion.

With no other business to conduct, Board Member Hawkins made a motion to adjourn. Board Member Naylor seconded the motion. The motion was approved.

The meeting adjourned at 3:40 p.m.
